

CERTIFICATE SENT ON.

The Wetzel County Court Takes Snap Judgment

AND SETTLES THE MATTER.

Pendleton Will Undoubtedly Get the Prima Facie Title to His Stolen Seat—The General Talk at New Martinsville—Points.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. VA., Nov. 29.—The County Court of Wetzel county yesterday settled the question as to who shall get the Governor's certificate of election as Congressman from the First district. They expedited matters to-day, signed the certificates based on what is usually a sure was a felonious alteration of the ballots after they were cast and counted, and at once had them mailed to Charleston. In the light of all the precedents it is not apparent how there can now be any other outcome of the matter than the issuing of the certificate to Pendleton. No court can intervene now. That is why the county court had no so precipitant delay. It did not propose that any court should intervene.

This morning the court deferred the decision as to whether it would sign Capt. Bowers' bill of exceptions on behalf of Mr. Atkinson till to-morrow. I do not know what the legal view of it is, but it seems to me this would require the court as a matter of honor to defer further action until the question was decided. It is a preliminary step. A ruling motivated by proper and high minded motives certainly would not do as this court did. As soon as Capt. Bowers left the court room they began to "hustle," and as soon as the evidence was taken out, signed them, and instructed the clerk to mail them. This is a precedent.

AFRAID TO INQUIRE.

The Court yesterday took under advisement the motion made by Capt. Bowers to summon the officers who conducted the election at the Upper Greene precinct. This morning they refused to do so.

Capt. Bowers, in support of his motion, read the expression of Judge Green, in the Supreme Court, in a similar case, Judge Green (20th W. Va., page 94) said, in speaking of possible frauds, that to prevent these the County Court has authority to summon officers of election.

Mr. J. C. Allen, of Wheeling, whose name has become familiar to some people since this recent business began, and who represented Mr. Pendleton today, objected to this. He said this was not the expression of the court as to the propriety of the court, but merely the dictum of the court, voluntary and not having the authority of a decision. But certainly the opinion of Judge Green as a mere lawyer ought to be taken into consideration by the court. Colonel Robert McDermott asked what was to be gained by summoning these officers. Suppose they appear and swear that there were 125 votes cast for Atkinson in that precinct, instead of 111, as the record shows; what Court? They would simply reflect on this court and its clerks.

Think of that! It was enough to prevent the court from summoning the commissioners of Upper Greene, as it was the duty of the court to do so. The motion of Capt. Bowers for a bill of exceptions was then taken up, and postponed until to-morrow. It is understood that the court intends to adjourn on Saturday. The postponement was due to the fact that Mr. Atkinson was Fleming's attorney as long as one was needed, and then resigned in favor of Mr. Unstead, and became the County Court's legal adviser, to look up the law.

What good will the law do when the certificates have been sent off? Messrs. Wiley and McDermott both declined to advise the court not to sign the bill of exceptions, lest they might be compelled by the Circuit Court, Judge Stanley, of that Court, by the way, is still absent, holding court in Doddridge county. Otherwise there would have been mandamus proceedings here, as in Wheeling.

IT WAS A STEAL.

The certificate as forwarded to Charleston gives Cleveland 2,285 votes and Harrison 1,384, a Democratic majority of 401; Fleming 2,285 and Goff 1,402, a Democratic majority of 883. The total vote on Presidency was 3,678, and on Governor 3,687. Of these Pendleton received by the recent 2,286 and Atkinson 1,377, a majority for Pendleton of 909.

At the original count at the polls Pendleton received but 2,283 votes. This discrepancy of three votes is inconceivable. Atkinson received 1,402 votes, and Pendleton's majority was but 881. It is not possible to suppose that 22 men scratched Atkinson's name off and did not write his opponent's name on? Is it reasonable to suppose that election officials, a majority Democratic, not old men of feeble eyesight, but young men of Grimvill's type, not ignorant men, as is assumed to make it reasonable, should count for the Republican candidate 22 votes from which his name was scratched in peculiarly black and strangely similar pencil marks?

The ballots were altered after they were first counted. They were altered in the vault of the County Clerk's office. They were altered by a man who ought to be in the penitentiary. Many good Democrats here doubt this. They have not examined the evidence which appears on the surface. Many others simply hope it is not so. Others who pass for honest men know it is so, and who also know it. It is a burning shame that the will of the people can be even temporarily thwarted by a sneak thief. It is a great pity that honest men who ought to help ferret out the criminal, turn their eyes to the facts and help in their partisan zeal to give effect to the crime.

None of the explanations offered will bear explanation. Those who make them are ill advised. Honest inquiry will show anybody that there was a grave crime committed.

One peculiar thing was told me to-day. When the returns came into the County Court the figures on Congressmen in Greene district were withheld. At 9:30 o'clock this morning. The hearing may take the form of an inquiry into the facts and cover the whole matter at issue in this county, or it may be determined without going into the

INTEREST IN THE LATE NEWS

From the Wetzel County Seal and the Kanawha Democratic Crookedness—The Stories of Violence and Riddle True.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., Nov. 29.—Here at Judge Fleming's home the interest in the news from "the seat of war" is intense. The arrival of the INTELLIGENCER this morning containing the exposure of frauds in Wetzel county and the action of the Supreme Court of Appeals at Charleston, was eagerly looked for, and every copy was sold in a few minutes, second-hand copies afterward commanding a premium. There is but one sentiment among Republicans and decent Democrats regarding yesterday's developments, all uniting in expressions of indignation over the disgraceful Wetzel affair. The excitement here is greater, perhaps, than at any other point in the State. A Republican said to me to-day: "Had Judge Fleming received a majority of the votes for Governor, the Republicans here would have taken a fruitless ride in seeing him enjoy the fruits of victory; but when they witness the bold attempt to deprive Goff of his fairly won victory their indignation knows no bounds, and they are ready to contribute in every way in their power to vindicate the rights of the people."

AN UNKNOWN-SHIP FOUNDERS IN THE RECENT CYCLONE.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—Captain Chabot, of the French steamship Panama, at this port reports that on November 20 the vessel was within 100 miles of the Delaware capes, where she met the terrific cyclone which damaged so much shipping along the coast. The seas were mountainous, and all efforts to keep the vessel's head on were fruitless, as the wind threw her around in the trough of the ocean. At times she was completely enveloped. The carpenter, L. Trancouse, who was at work at the time, was swept overboard by the waves, which came over the starboard side, and was drowned.

At 8 o'clock the same night the signals of a vessel in distress were being shown up from a dark bulk which was nearly level with the water. Captain Cabot bore down on the craft as near as possible. She was unable to get close enough to rescue the crew. He could distinctly see the men clinging to the after house, waving lights and begging to be taken off. He believes the vessel to have been a schooner. She was deeply laden, and doubtless foundered with all on board. When he left them they were waving torches, but after a few moments all the lights died out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The remains of Mrs. W. T. Sherman, accompanied by her family and Senator John Sherman, left on the 6:30 o'clock Pennsylvania train to-night for St. Louis. READING, PA., Nov. 29.—Several days ago it was decided to take Jonas Henry, a young man of Grimvill's type, to the Harrisburg Insane Asylum. He had a revolver and procured a revolver and a lot of cartridges, locked himself in his room and barricaded it. There he has remained ever since, threatening to shoot any one who attempts to capture him. A posse will make a determined effort to capture him.

A Mother Confesses Her Part in the Murder of Her Child.

MAHON, IND., Nov. 29.—John Sage, of this place, occupies a cell in the county jail, charged with murder in the first degree. The crime of which Sage stands accused dates back about seven years. At that time the prisoner and his divorced wife were residents of Hartford City. The latter was a widow, with a little daughter three years old. Sage had made overtures for matrimony, but the child was an impediment to the union.

In the course of events the child was drowned, and after a brief interval of well-assumed grief and tribulation the widow became Mrs. Sage. Soon after evidence accumulated that the child was foully murdered, and Sage and his wife were arrested.

At the trial the woman pleaded guilty and assumed all responsibility for the crime. She was sentenced to the Female Reformatory for life, and the case against Sage was dropped.

When notice of the suit was served on Mrs. Sage at the prison at Indianapolis she became almost frantic with fury, and told what she claimed was the true story of the murder of her child.

She said that as long as her partner in crime refused to confess to her she would have shielded him, but his application for a divorce determined her to expose him and compel him to assume his full share of the horrible deed.

At the September term of court here the divorce was granted. At the last term of court at Hartford City Mrs. Sage was brought from Indianapolis. Her testimony was taken, and an indictment was drawn formally charging Sage with murder in the first degree. Last evening was held at that indictment.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S HORRIBLE CRIME AND SUICIDE.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.—Details of a horrible outrage, murder and suicide come from Nevada, Mo., to-day. The outrage and murder was committed about eight miles south of Nevada, the victim being Miss Ella Wray, aged 21 years, the daughter of a widow, and belonging to one of the best families in that section.

Yesterday Miss Wray accompanied Geo. Curb, who taught the district school and boarded with Mrs. Wray, to the city. Curb returned last night alone, and informed a brother of Miss Wray that the girl had been dragged from the buggy and murdered by two unknown men.

The body was found in a clump of bushes near the roadside, the young woman's throat having been cut from ear to ear. Curb was placed under guard, and during the night committed suicide by taking poison, thus escaping lynching. The coroner's inquest developed the fact that the girl had been outraged and then murdered.
